

The next step..... Applying For Your Internship

In collaboration with The University Centre for Rural Health (UCRH), The Lismore Rural Medical Training Hub is offering 2 information sessions to current medical students of UCRH in preparation for upcoming internship application process.

Students will gain insight to:

- The Rural Preferential Recruitment
- What recruitment team are looking for in your application
- How to address the selection criteria and deciding on appropriate referees
- What to expect at your interview and tips to get through

Date: Tuesday 22nd and Wednesday 23rd May

Time: 12:30pm

Venue: UCRH – Fern Room

Presenters will include: Rebekah Carter – Medical Workforce Richmond Network Operations Manager and Lismore Medical Rural Training Hub Manager, Kylie Laraghy – Richmond Network JMO Manager, Michael Harley – Current Lismore Base Hospital Intern and Previous UoW & UCRH Student, and Joseph Vandenberg – Current Lismore Base Hospital RMO and Previous UoW & UCRH Student